

Becky's Testimony

I'm 14. I first became a Christian at the end of year 8, at church camp two years ago.

There was a very moving talk about heaven and hell which hit me because recent to this my friend died, and this had me thinking about death a lot.

I learnt from church that we all have done wrong things which puts a barrier between us and God and I realised that the only way to get rid of this barrier was through Jesus and his death on the cross.

Something I have learnt at one of the clubs I go to is that life without Jesus is like you are dead and if you are dead you cant do anything but when Jesus comes into your life you become alive.

I wish to get baptised to publicly say that I have asked Jesus into my life and I want to thank him for his grace and his unfailing love that I don't deserve.
